WRECKERS OF HIGH PRICES

THE TURNING POINT HAS COME!

On account of the retirement of Mr. W. T. C. Cross from our firm it is imperatively necessary that our affairs be closed up at once—and to accomplish this result in the least possible time we begin

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 4th,
TO CONTINUE 14 DAYS.

A MONSTER DISSOLUTION SALE.

THE MOST REMARKABLE
BARGAIN SALE YET.

Necessity compels quick action—forces us to extreme measures. "Oh, my! what a slaughter in Prices." Come and see how we can save you money at the greatest sale we have ever announced. Read the details below and remember, "However startling the prices may be, you'll find the goods just as advertised." Let the seemingly impossible prices not deter you, but come—for the impossible is always possible with us.

GIGANTIC CLOSING HANDKERCHIEFS.

We must get rid of our enormous Handkerchief stock. The extreme cold weather brought them down to the lowest notch for years, but it cannot keep the downward pace with the extra low prices at which we sell. Come and see our $1.50 in US HANDKERCHIEF STOCK.

We have many.

Ladies' Pure Linen Handkerchiefs.
Men's Drawn Work Handkerchiefs.
Children's Embroidered Handkerchiefs.
Ladies' fine Steel Embroidered Handkerchiefs.

Here are prices to clear them out with a rush:

The Lady World Fair Commissioners for Kentucky have decided the technical relatives to be the official flower of Kentucky. This is the ordinary trumpet flower that grows wild in the State.

Editor Shackson of the Franklin Globe who sacrificed his chance for Governor by his loyalty to Grant, is a candidate for the London Consulate, which pays $35,000 a year, and he ought to have the place.

The more the Kentucky thinks about it the more it likes the idea of taking it in.
The fact that England is inclined to bully about the matter is one pretty good reason why we should insist on the annexation proposition.

Miss Minnie Marshall, aged 19, has brought suit for $10,000 against her grandfather, Rev. John Marshall, aged 71, a Methodist minister of Knoxville, Tenn., charging him with seducing her. The old man says the girl is trying to blacken him. He is a man of means and prominence.

San Francisco, in the same latitude as Cuba. It is the largest of the Sandwich Islands, and the second largest in the group. It has two great volcanoes, Mauna Loa and Mauna Kea. The admission of these would enable us to have eruptions without taking the annex.

Locomotive and Jeffersonville had an epidemic of suicides Monday. Louis Bender, a convict in the prison south about 10 miles from the city, was found dead on the blating ground. Louis Herrick, a well known and popular barber, who, while drunk, killed policeman John Boyle, shot himself in the head. Exterminator William Harrington, who was working on a William D. Friesley selected lands with fatal results. Albert Bowles took morphine to end his troubles but with unsuccessful results.

The seal of the Midwives number of the Century will find as the frontispiece a portrait of Tennessee engraved by T. Johnson from the photograph of which the post of Andy Tennessee and his wife, all agreed in thinking the best portrait of the laureate. He is here represented in a most vigorous and poetic aspect. On the reverse of the engraving is a portrait of Tennessee in August, 1862, showing the firmness and refinement of his handwriting even in old age.
Accompanying this portrait is an article by the Rev. Dr. Henry Van Dyke on "The Value of a Seal." Tennessee comes to visit the post during the past summer, and with critical comments on the significance of his poetic work. Other articles of personal interest are a poem of "Friend Lies," and a sketch of the estimate of the great pianist, which will interest all lovers of music, the memory of which is strung in sonnets by the French composer, "The romance of a piano." This paper is accompanied by a portrait of Lies, one after the painting by Munkaczy, and the other from a photograph of Lies' last walk.
